Breed to Navarone for Versatility, Trainability, Jumping, Dressage and Beautiful foals that will excel in sport.

Navarone produces athletes! He has produced international Grand Prix jumping and Eventing champions (example: Thunder III, Touchable, Navarre). They also excel in dressage like himself. Navarone's offspring have his correct conformation, gorgeous head, powerful gaits along with a temperament and willingness to match.

This is an athletic beautiful stallion! He is a favorite in the barn and shows. He loves people. His trainability is just so easy anyone could ride him. With his athletic abilities and trainability, he is a winner in any sport!

Navarone has jumped successfully to 1.40m level but showed us his love for dressage and competed to Grand Prix dressage. Navarone produces power behind, nice length of neck, pretty offspring and the best character/personality you can find.

The Navarone offspring love people and love to work. It is not only fun to take Navarone to the shows, but also for his offspring. He is stamping his foals with the best character you can find! Producing KWPN 1st Premium and Top Five Offspring. The amateur and the professionals love his offspring. Fantastic trainability and well balanced young.
