Ground Work	3	Worked on leading and stopping when I stop. Much improvement from last week. Where she did it right once which is where we ended.
Ground Work	2	We played the yo-yo game. When asked to back up she wanted to lunge. Had to use lots of pressure and corrections. We were able to end on a good note

Basic Handling & Grooming	4	Loves to be groomed because she is getting all of the attention. She gets easily bothered by flies and doesn't want to pick up her feet. Unless someone is holding her to focus her attention elsewhere
Ground Work	4	Played the yo-yo game today she is getting and better each day. She is backing up with little pressure needed. She is standing at the end the rope longer, without taking a step forward
Longeing	5	For the first time free longeing she did extremely well. Sent her around the round pen 3 times. She turns in to me everytime and follows me very well.
Bitting/Tacking	5	Introduced the saddle pad. She did not seem to mind it much. Walked around with it on, and hit the pad to make noise. Neither of which startled or spooked her.

Basic Handling & Grooming	5	Today I made sure to put fly spray on her before we started grooming. Since I did that she was less distracted, she stood still and picked up her feet when asked.
Basic Handling & Grooming	4	Introduced her to more obstacles. She was nervous about some but, was never refused to go through the obstacle. We even got to the point that we trotted over cross rails
Longeing	4	Introduced her a longe line. Little defiant, once she realized what I was wanting she was great. Her stops are good on command, barley had to pull her to stop. She does prefer to go to the left
Longeing	4	We free longed today only had a few issues. She kept wanting to make her circle smaller. After she joins up and I ask her to back up it took 4 times. She had great stops today.

Ground Work	5	Went over more obstacles and was not phased by them at all. We trotted over cross rails, did a push and pull turn within the small box without hitting the rails.
Longeing	4	She does really well reading my cues. Stops when I ask her, changes direction when asked. The only thing she struggles with is keeping pace.
Bitting/Tacking	3	While putting on the saddle she backed up a bit for cinching. Once tightened she didn't mind it until asked to canter. She then started to bronc went forward eventually.

Ground Work	3	Introduced her to new a chute with pool noodles on it. She did not like it at all. Once we went through it a couple times she got used to it and was no longer scared.
Ground Work	3	She was very worried about the many cows, on the other side of the gate rather than the obstacles. She was breathing heavy and was very nervous and scatter brained after seeing the cows.
