This certificate is evidence of the ownership of the horse named herein and is valid only if accompanied by a bill of sale with room to describe, or any attempt to pass a certificate without a bill of sale, is null and void. No person shall attempt to pass said certificate without a bill of sale.

When this horse is sold, the seller must return this certificate, plus a bill of sale, to the transfer fee to the Percheron Horse Association, Inc. on the records of the Association. The Association will issue a new certificate to the new owner by the 30th day. There is a $25.00 administrative fee added to anyone who fails to do so.
