

Horse mortality

For a horse owner, the loss of a beloved animal can be devastating both emotionally and financially.

While equine mortality insurance can't diminish the grief of losing a horse, it can help to soften the economic impact. Markel® offers several flexible coverage options because we know that horses (and their owners) are unique.

Markel offers two types of policies:

1. All risk mortality and theft

This comprehensive policy reimburses you for the death, theft, or humane destruction of your covered horse, including illness or disease.

2. Specified perils coverage

Also known as "Named Perils" or "Restricted Perils," specified perils coverage covers your horse for death, theft or humane destruction caused by specified perils listed in the policy, including but not limited to fire, lightning, earthquakes, electrocution, drowning, transit risks and attack by wild animals. Death due to illness or disease is not covered. This coverage is offered on all horses from 24 hours to 25 years of age (inclusive) and no health documents are required to purchase this policy.
